

IN NORTH TOPEKA

Christmas Entertainments Are Planned by All the Churches.

Display of Holiday Goods at the Stores Is Attractive.

Arrangements are completed by all churches of the North side for their annual Christmas entertainments. Dates have been set for the events and only the details remain to be worked out.

In almost every case the brunt of the entertainment will fall on the youthful shoulders of the Sunday school pupils. The work of the youngsters, however, will be supplemented by older members from the congregations.

Several of the churches are training the children for Christmas in other ways. The entertainment will consist mainly of musical numbers. In practically every case Christmas trees are being set up and candy and other presents will be distributed among the children.

The first North Topeka church to present its Christmas entertainment will be the North Congregational. The program will be given Thursday evening, Friday night, the North Topeka Baptist church, Central Avenue Christian church and the Second Presbyterian church will offer their entertainments.

Grocers to the Front.

North Topeka grocers are beginning to display their Christmas candies, fruits, cakes and other holiday edibles. A large variety of articles seldom purchased except on extraordinary occasions are on view. Christmas trees have made their appearance at North side stores and along with the trees have come the various other Christmas plants that find a place in holiday decorations.

Practically all North side grocery stores have announced that they will be closed all day December 25. The enable housewives to provide for their Christmas feasts however, merchants will keep their shops open Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings.

David Hall was G. A. R. Man. David H. Hall, who died in Berkeley, Cal., recently was mustered into Blue Post No. 259, G. A. R., Sept. 21, 1885. He was honorably discharged July 16, 1888. Mr. Hall served two and a half years as quartermaster succeeding J. P. Gwynn. He was a member of a number of North side and for many years lived here.

Notes and Personal.

Ed Grosser, cashier of the Citizens' State bank, is confined to his home again today on account of illness. Mr. Grosser has been in poor health for more than two months.

North Topeka friends of Elliot M. Mathews have been advised of his death. Mr. Mathews died at his home in Golden, Colo., following an attack of pneumonia. He was well known by old residents of the North Side having lived here for many years.

Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Thompson will spend the holidays with relatives in Junction City. Among others they will visit the doctors' parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Thompson and Mrs. Thompson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Thompson.

Members of the Men's club which was organized several weeks ago will meet tonight at the North Congregational church. The purpose of the club is to do some thing for the community. Election of vice presidents will also be held tonight. E. R. Bude is president of the organization and W. D. Coleman is secretary. Each church on the North Side elects a vice president.

Members of the Parent-Teachers association of Quincy will be addressed this afternoon by S. E. Plon in charge of the local weather station. H. J. Shook, of Wakarusa, John Duffy, of Elmont, and George, of Elmont, will be in the front of the Ford. In the rear were Mrs. Mary Griffin, 372 Chester avenue, who sustained a broken collar bone; Mrs. Reed received a wrenched neck, and Miss Esther Reed came out of the accident with a damaged eye.

The automobile was going south on Topeka avenue and young Reed asserted he did not see the car coming. The street car struck the Ford squarely.

Miss Bertha M. of Hastings, Neb., is a guest at the hotel on the North side of the city. Mrs. J. D. Pratt, of 823 North Jackson street.

Practically all Sunday school classes and other church organizations have suspended social activities until after the holidays. At present members of the organizations are assisting in the Christmas entertainments which all churches will present this week.

Members of the Central Avenue Christian church will provide food, clothing and toys for poor families of Topeka.

HE WAS UP TO DATE

Father Wrecked a Perfectly Good 1916 Calendar That Made Its Appearance Too Soon.

"Oh, what a beautiful calendar!" said the lady of the house, as she picked up the latest creation for 1916. "I'll just hang it on the wall right now. It won't be long until the first of the year."

A little later the same day, Father walked into the room and looked around. The first thing he saw was the new calendar. The word "January" stood out boldly on the first sheet.

"Now what carelessness," said he as he scanned the calendar. "Havin' January in December, I'll fix that." Then he proceeded to tear off every sheet until December showed up. Satisfied with his work the old gentleman went to tell his daughter that she ought to keep her calendars up to date.

FATHER IS CHARGED

Texas Man Is Named in Connection With Murder of 17-Year-Old Daughter.

Paris, Tex., Dec. 20.—T. R. Walton, father of Miss Pauline Walton, the 17-year-old girl who was murdered in a hotel at her home here Saturday morning, was arrested early today and formally charged with the murder of his daughter. The arrest was made shortly after 1 o'clock. This was done, it was said, as a precautionary measure for fear of mob violence.

Walton spent the rest of the night in jail, protesting his innocence of the charge. At daylight he was spirited away by officers on a southbound train. Cooper and Freeman were mentioned as probable destinations of the party.

Multiple game for gift at Crosby Bros.—Adv.

BRINGING UP FATHER

DO SANTA CLAUS WORK

Topeka Elks Will Take Care of 1,200 Children at the Club House Christmas Morning.

The Elks of Topeka, the "Best People on Earth," are going to give the poor children of Topeka a real Christmas treat Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. A big Christmas celebration will be held at the club house, at Seventh and Jackson, and Santa Claus will distribute presents to more than 1,200 children. In this way the Elks hope to reach a large number of Topeka children whose gifts for the day might be rather slim.

The Elks started this Christmas giving seven or eight years ago and it has grown to be one of the important factors in making the holiday bright in Topeka. Last year 1,000 children attended the event and none of them went away empty handed.

All this week, with the aid of old St. Nick, the members of the club, lodge No. 204, B. P. O. E., are buying in great lots the most attractive presents they can find in Topeka stores. And at 10 a. m. Christmas day the children will come in for their good time.

FIVE PERSONS HURT

Street Car Is Derailed and a Little Old Ford Is Demolished in a Collision.

A westbound Washburn-Huntton street car and a Ford touring car collided at Twelfth and Topeka avenue late Saturday afternoon, making an unpleasant mixup in which five people were injured. The Ford was nearly demolished and the street car was derailed and also suffered a broken front end.

The Ford was driven by Baker Reed, son of J. W. Reed, of Overbrook, who was in the car. The driver was badly shaken up and the car was badly out of control. They were in the front of the Ford. In the rear were Mrs. Mary Griffin, 372 Chester avenue, who sustained a broken collar bone; Mrs. Reed received a wrenched neck, and Miss Esther Reed came out of the accident with a damaged eye.

The automobile was going south on Topeka avenue and young Reed asserted he did not see the car coming. The street car struck the Ford squarely.

AT THE THEATERS

An avalanche of mail orders and reiterated requests over the telephone for seats to the two performances of "Daddy Long-Legs" at the Grand at the Grand. The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

DO SANTA CLAUS WORK

Topeka Elks Will Take Care of 1,200 Children at the Club House Christmas Morning.

The Elks of Topeka, the "Best People on Earth," are going to give the poor children of Topeka a real Christmas treat Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. A big Christmas celebration will be held at the club house, at Seventh and Jackson, and Santa Claus will distribute presents to more than 1,200 children. In this way the Elks hope to reach a large number of Topeka children whose gifts for the day might be rather slim.

The Elks started this Christmas giving seven or eight years ago and it has grown to be one of the important factors in making the holiday bright in Topeka. Last year 1,000 children attended the event and none of them went away empty handed.

All this week, with the aid of old St. Nick, the members of the club, lodge No. 204, B. P. O. E., are buying in great lots the most attractive presents they can find in Topeka stores. And at 10 a. m. Christmas day the children will come in for their good time.

FIVE PERSONS HURT

Street Car Is Derailed and a Little Old Ford Is Demolished in a Collision.

A westbound Washburn-Huntton street car and a Ford touring car collided at Twelfth and Topeka avenue late Saturday afternoon, making an unpleasant mixup in which five people were injured. The Ford was nearly demolished and the street car was derailed and also suffered a broken front end.

The Ford was driven by Baker Reed, son of J. W. Reed, of Overbrook, who was in the car. The driver was badly shaken up and the car was badly out of control. They were in the front of the Ford. In the rear were Mrs. Mary Griffin, 372 Chester avenue, who sustained a broken collar bone; Mrs. Reed received a wrenched neck, and Miss Esther Reed came out of the accident with a damaged eye.

The automobile was going south on Topeka avenue and young Reed asserted he did not see the car coming. The street car struck the Ford squarely.

AT THE THEATERS

An avalanche of mail orders and reiterated requests over the telephone for seats to the two performances of "Daddy Long-Legs" at the Grand

at the Grand. The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

THE TOPEKA DAILY STATE JOURNAL—MONDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 20, 1915

DO SANTA CLAUS WORK

Topeka Elks Will Take Care of 1,200 Children at the Club House Christmas Morning.

The Elks of Topeka, the "Best People on Earth," are going to give the poor children of Topeka a real Christmas treat Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. A big Christmas celebration will be held at the club house, at Seventh and Jackson, and Santa Claus will distribute presents to more than 1,200 children. In this way the Elks hope to reach a large number of Topeka children whose gifts for the day might be rather slim.

The Elks started this Christmas giving seven or eight years ago and it has grown to be one of the important factors in making the holiday bright in Topeka. Last year 1,000 children attended the event and none of them went away empty handed.

All this week, with the aid of old St. Nick, the members of the club, lodge No. 204, B. P. O. E., are buying in great lots the most attractive presents they can find in Topeka stores. And at 10 a. m. Christmas day the children will come in for their good time.

FIVE PERSONS HURT

Street Car Is Derailed and a Little Old Ford Is Demolished in a Collision.

A westbound Washburn-Huntton street car and a Ford touring car collided at Twelfth and Topeka avenue late Saturday afternoon, making an unpleasant mixup in which five people were injured. The Ford was nearly demolished and the street car was derailed and also suffered a broken front end.

The Ford was driven by Baker Reed, son of J. W. Reed, of Overbrook, who was in the car. The driver was badly shaken up and the car was badly out of control. They were in the front of the Ford. In the rear were Mrs. Mary Griffin, 372 Chester avenue, who sustained a broken collar bone; Mrs. Reed received a wrenched neck, and Miss Esther Reed came out of the accident with a damaged eye.

The automobile was going south on Topeka avenue and young Reed asserted he did not see the car coming. The street car struck the Ford squarely.

AT THE THEATERS

An avalanche of mail orders and reiterated requests over the telephone for seats to the two performances of "Daddy Long-Legs" at the Grand

at the Grand. The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

DO SANTA CLAUS WORK

Topeka Elks Will Take Care of 1,200 Children at the Club House Christmas Morning.

The Elks of Topeka, the "Best People on Earth," are going to give the poor children of Topeka a real Christmas treat Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. A big Christmas celebration will be held at the club house, at Seventh and Jackson, and Santa Claus will distribute presents to more than 1,200 children. In this way the Elks hope to reach a large number of Topeka children whose gifts for the day might be rather slim.

The Elks started this Christmas giving seven or eight years ago and it has grown to be one of the important factors in making the holiday bright in Topeka. Last year 1,000 children attended the event and none of them went away empty handed.

All this week, with the aid of old St. Nick, the members of the club, lodge No. 204, B. P. O. E., are buying in great lots the most attractive presents they can find in Topeka stores. And at 10 a. m. Christmas day the children will come in for their good time.

FIVE PERSONS HURT

Street Car Is Derailed and a Little Old Ford Is Demolished in a Collision.

A westbound Washburn-Huntton street car and a Ford touring car collided at Twelfth and Topeka avenue late Saturday afternoon, making an unpleasant mixup in which five people were injured. The Ford was nearly demolished and the street car was derailed and also suffered a broken front end.

The Ford was driven by Baker Reed, son of J. W. Reed, of Overbrook, who was in the car. The driver was badly shaken up and the car was badly out of control. They were in the front of the Ford. In the rear were Mrs. Mary Griffin, 372 Chester avenue, who sustained a broken collar bone; Mrs. Reed received a wrenched neck, and Miss Esther Reed came out of the accident with a damaged eye.

The automobile was going south on Topeka avenue and young Reed asserted he did not see the car coming. The street car struck the Ford squarely.

AT THE THEATERS

An avalanche of mail orders and reiterated requests over the telephone for seats to the two performances of "Daddy Long-Legs" at the Grand

at the Grand. The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

DO SANTA CLAUS WORK

Topeka Elks Will Take Care of 1,200 Children at the Club House Christmas Morning.

The Elks of Topeka, the "Best People on Earth," are going to give the poor children of Topeka a real Christmas treat Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. A big Christmas celebration will be held at the club house, at Seventh and Jackson, and Santa Claus will distribute presents to more than 1,200 children. In this way the Elks hope to reach a large number of Topeka children whose gifts for the day might be rather slim.

The Elks started this Christmas giving seven or eight years ago and it has grown to be one of the important factors in making the holiday bright in Topeka. Last year 1,000 children attended the event and none of them went away empty handed.

All this week, with the aid of old St. Nick, the members of the club, lodge No. 204, B. P. O. E., are buying in great lots the most attractive presents they can find in Topeka stores. And at 10 a. m. Christmas day the children will come in for their good time.

FIVE PERSONS HURT

Street Car Is Derailed and a Little Old Ford Is Demolished in a Collision.

A westbound Washburn-Huntton street car and a Ford touring car collided at Twelfth and Topeka avenue late Saturday afternoon, making an unpleasant mixup in which five people were injured. The Ford was nearly demolished and the street car was derailed and also suffered a broken front end.

The Ford was driven by Baker Reed, son of J. W. Reed, of Overbrook, who was in the car. The driver was badly shaken up and the car was badly out of control. They were in the front of the Ford. In the rear were Mrs. Mary Griffin, 372 Chester avenue, who sustained a broken collar bone; Mrs. Reed received a wrenched neck, and Miss Esther Reed came out of the accident with a damaged eye.

The automobile was going south on Topeka avenue and young Reed asserted he did not see the car coming. The street car struck the Ford squarely.

AT THE THEATERS

An avalanche of mail orders and reiterated requests over the telephone for seats to the two performances of "Daddy Long-Legs" at the Grand

at the Grand. The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

The play was a success. The play was a success. The play was a success.

DO SANTA CLAUS WORK

Topeka Elks Will Take Care of 1,200 Children at the Club House Christmas Morning.

The Elks of Topeka, the "Best People on Earth," are going to give the poor children of Topeka a real Christmas treat Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. A big Christmas celebration will be held at the club house, at Seventh and Jackson, and Santa Claus will distribute presents to more than 1,200 children. In this way the Elks hope to reach a large number of Topeka children whose gifts for the day might be rather slim.

The Elks started this Christmas giving seven or eight years ago and it has grown to be one of the important factors in making the holiday bright in Topeka. Last year 1,000 children attended the event and none of them went away empty handed.

All this week, with the aid of old St. Nick, the members of the club, lodge No. 204, B. P. O. E., are buying in great lots the most attractive presents they can find in Topeka stores. And at 10 a. m. Christmas day the children will come in for their good time.

FIVE PERSONS HURT

Street Car Is Derailed and a Little Old Ford Is Demolished in a Collision.